About Avadhi

Avadhi Dhruv is an International Bestselling Author, Youtuber, and a Business Guru. She helps leaders of family legacy businesses run their companies in a way that fosters healthy family relationships.

Avadhi founded the brand, Avadhi.guru™ with the intention of bringing a holistic approach to businesses. She finds fulfillment in helping entrepreneurs gain clarity and confidence in achieving their business dreams. Through her books and programs, Avadhi helps her clients create and execute on strategic plans for their businesses, where they have unlimited potential for growth in income, freedom in lifestyle, and a deep understanding of their worth as a business owner. Her first bestseller, Inner Genius Outer Guru: A Heart-Centered Entrepreneur's Guide to Unlimited Potential for Growth in Income and Freedom in Lifestyle without Burnout, was a huge success amongst entrepreneurs ready to create real income-generating businesses they love.

Today, Avadhi is a thought leader and world leader whose vision is to create a world of abundance and fulfillment by empowering heart-centered, conscious entrepreneurs to take their businesses to new heights. Her clients have included budding entrepreneurs to leaders of multi-million dollar international businesses who have successfully made transformational changes in their businesses and lives.

Avadhi is the Chief Transformation Officer at Prabhat, a global brand and family-owned business with more than fifty years of success. In a few short years, she helped the Prabhat group of companies achieve multi-levels of top-line and bottom-line growth along with the ability to thrive in any kind of economic climate. Avadhi uses her skills and experience coupled with powerful transformational tools to help her clients create long-lasting business results.

Avadhi was born in India and attended a residential school, a Gurukulam, which provided an environment of holistic education interwoven with spiritual practices. Upon moving to the United States, she attended Georgia Institute of Technology for her undergrad in Industrial and Systems Engineering. After graduating with honors, she moved to sunny San Diego, California, which is where she currently resides.
